Liberal-Conservative Association Meeting

Ouelletteville and Cluny Hold Most Successful Social Meeting in Wheatfield School House.

The very sudden storm, which occurred in this vicinity last Saturday and lasted nearly two hours, rather spoilt the arrangements which had been made for entertaining the guests and the children of the district, in the open air but the little ones enjoyed themselves in the school house where about 25 children were made happy by some beautiful presents, in the shape of toys, being brought by them out of a bran pie. The weather clearing about 5 o'clock the children took part in foot races, the boys events being won by Trevor Hirst and Willie Boyden, while the girls race was won by Miss Dot Manly, each of the winners received handsome prizes.

While talking of races we must not forget to mention the most important event, which took place after supper and was a match race for the two heaviest men in the place, were Messrs. W. P. Evans and E. Wyndham who were matched to run 100 yards but as they had both partaken of a very hearty supper the distance was cut down to 50 yards. Mr. E. H. Crandell of Calgary first sprinted over the course to show them how it ought to be done. The two competitors got away to a good start but both waited on each other for the greater length of the course to make the final dash at the winning post, Ernie Wyndham made his dash and got home first, the representative of the CALL made his dash and bit the dust, only in this case, it happened to be mud, we are glad to say though he fell heavily he was not hurt. There was no official time keeper for the race but some one who had a watch said it was under 10 minutes.

After a most sumptuous supper provided by the ladies of the association, the meeting was opened about 8 p.m. with a full house of both French and English. President W. H. Coates occupied the chair and made a few remarks setting forth the objects for which the association had been formed. That it was intended to be social as well as political and that he considered it good policy to associate he ladies with them as it was quite impossible to get on without them. He then called on Mr. J. R. Miquelon, president of the Conservative Association of Calgary. Mr. Miquelon apologised for the absence of T. W. Tweedie, M.P.P., and introduced Alderman E. H. Crandell of Calgary. Mr. Crandell with great attention by all present. As there was dancing in prospect the speeches were disposed of as soon as possible and after a vote of thanks to the speakers by E. V. Manley and one to the ladies by Mr. E. Wyndham, Mr. P. McLean, secretary of Gleichen Association, congratulated the president and the executive for having got together such a splendid organization in so short a time and wished them every success. The meeting then terminated by singing "God Save the King."

Dancing was kept brisk and lively with Joe Carbiel as Master of Ceremonies and Messrs. Burr, Bouchard and McKenzie supplying the music until the hour of midnight when, owing to the close proximity of Sunday morning the party broke up voting it one of the best events ever held in Ouelletteville.

The officers and members of the association desire to thank their many friends who came from Gleichen and elsewhere to take part in their first meeting and their thanks are especially due to Mr. T. Shultz for his generosity in providing the very handsome presents for the children, which went so far in giving them what they all considered was the time of their lives.

The school of the French colony at Ouelletteville will be re-opened on Monday with Mr. E. Topliff as schoolmaster.

Bert Ketchum, who has been on the CALL staff since last July, left on Monday to take over the Carlstadt News of which he was formerly a partner. Those to whom he disposed of his interests have found the usual troubles in a newspaper office and have given way to let Bert try his luck. The CALL staff had hoped that Bert would not come to an end like this, but somehow it seems printers cannot keep out of trouble even when they see it staring them in the face. But Bert is only one more victim added to the long list of—well, those who cannot keep out of trouble. The CALL, however, joins the many friends in wishing him all things good, in fact we wish him more and trust some day while he is yet young he will see the folly of his ways and quit the paper business and try to gather some negotiable collateral together.

THE GLEICHEN STAMPEDE THURS. & FRI. JUNE 11 & 12

Gleichen, on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, 56 miles east of Calgary, was in its earlier days, famous for its immense cattle and horse ranches. Here, when the season's work was over, the cowboys met to have a good time and many were the stirring scenes enacted in the old town when rivalry among the riders ran high. It was almost thirty years ago that the town came into existence and in the years that have passed many changes have taken place. There are still some of the old timers left who lament the passing of those good old days when roping and bucking exhibitions were to be seen in the streets of the town, when, as often as not, the unfortunate victim was some innocent bystander who happened to get in the way of the boisterous cowboys.

But though the rough element has disappeared, Gleichen still is an important cowtown and can still look picturesque when the boys in their chaps and brightly colored shirts and neckerchiefs strike town.

At the cattle round-up in 1913, fifty thousand head of cattle were dipped. The dipping of the cattle has come to be one of the events of annual importance and visitors from far and near come to see it. Each year one hears the same remark too, "This will be the last year you will ever have an opportunity of seeing so many cattle, the ranges are being so badly cut up for farming." Yet when the time comes around again there are just as many cattle to be dipped. If, in some parts of the country, the ranges are disappearing, this cannot be said of the Gleichen district where there are now more cattle than ever before.

It is just the same with horses, although they are not raised on the same scale as cattle. There are between 4,500 and 5,000 head of range horses owned by such well known ranchers as Ryan and Fares, McHugh Brothers, Hardwick Brothers, Jack Morton, Desjardine Bros., while the Clark Brothers on their ranch along the Crowfoot Creek have nearly 2,000 head of horses.

Close in to town, where once the mighty herds roamed at will, is now closely settled and the rich and fertile soil yields record crops of wheat, oats, flax and barley. Forty-five to fifty bushels of wheat to the acre is no uncommon yield for our best farmers, while in 1913 one farmer threshed 142 bushels of oats to the acre. All over the Blackfoot Indian Reserve adjoining town, where accurate records were kept, the average yield of wheat was 32½ bushels to the acre. No richer soil is to be found anywhere in Alberta and visitors to the Stampede would do well to look the district over.

Interest in the Stampede is very keen and the local cowboys are preparing to take part in the various events. Hardly a day passes without exhibitions of roping and riding taking place in town to the great interest and delight of the youngsters and not a few of the grown-ups.

The prize money to the amount of $5,000 has been fully subscribed and the contests in the various events should be keen and exciting. A number of well-known cowboys who have participated in the Calgary and Winnipeg Stampedes have intimated their intention of taking part. Among others, Emery LeGrand, winner of the Winnipeg Championship, will be along with Day's string of wild horses. Red Parker and Clem Gardner, both of whom distinguished themselves at Calgary and Winnipeg, will be there. Tom Three-persons, the Blood Indian, conqueror of Cyclone and world's champion rider in 1912, is taking part, while the Blackfoot Indians will be represented by Weasel Horn and Tommy Two Horns.

Some other well-known contestants are Joe McDonald of Maple Creek, Mike Hermann of High River and Tom Gibson of Carbon, Day of Medicine Hat is bringing along a lady rider who will ride bucking horses and steers. Among local aspirants are C. Mitchell, L. J. Engstrom, C. Christianson, Scotty Ross who claims the championship of Gleichen, Hank Smith of Strathmore, Phil Buzzard and J. Walker of Bassano, late with the Buffalo Bill Wild West Show, Ford Tucker and Howard Hayes, Bob Wilson with a string of roping and bucking horses has also offered to come.

A good band has been engaged and splendid music will be provided each day.

Arrangements have been made with the C. P. R. to run a special train each day from Calgary.

A large number of men are at work putting the stands and grounds in good shape, while the committee are making every possible arrangement to provide for the comfort and entertainment of visitors.

The first draft of the prize list is as follows and will be issued complete in a few days.

Gleichen Baseball Club Re-organized

On Thursday evening of last week a meeting was held in the Town Hall to talk over the prospects of having a baseball club for this year in Gleichen. Although the meeting was hurriedly called a goodly number was present and all took quite an enthusiastic interest in the matter. There was naturally considerable discussion of the club in former years and the difficulties met with particularly last year financially and otherwise, but in the end all were in favor of re-organizing the club on a careful basis and the election of officers was proceeded with, resulting as follows.

President, J. A. McDonald. Vice-President, J. L. Laycock. Sec. Treas., Jas. McLeod. Manager, Alex. McHugh.

The selection of a team was discussed at length and it was deemed advisable to ask all baseball players to turn out for practice as by this means the best in town can be selected. It was determined that only local men should be members of the team this season. It was the general belief that an excellent team can be secured from the great number who have expressed a willingness to take part.

The secretary was instructed to write to Bassano, Cluny, Strathmore and Langdon and obtain the opinion of these towns regarding the formation of a league.

Before adjourning it was agreed that the next meeting should be convened at the call of the president and the hope was expressed that all citizens would give their cordial support to the club and assist financially as considerable money is required to renew the supplies necessary for the players.

Another meeting was held Tuesday evening when C. L. Farrow was elected manager and W. C. Peck captain of the team. At this meeting it was decided that the club will not be responsible for any accounts unless they are duly signed by the manager or the secretary.

Cluny News

The boys of the baseball team are some tickled over having won the baseball game on Sunday. Score Cluny 15, Gleichen 2.

Messrs. Burr & Dier, carpenters etc., have secured the contract for the erection of a large barn near Major.

H. H. Forsyth is progressing favorably since his accident and is now able to be around with the aid of crutches.

The mayor of Cluny after much persuasion was induced to pitch for the ball team at their game on Sunday.

Last Sunday while Messrs. Ketchum and McKay and Misses Edgar and Hylott were driving down to spend the day picnicking at the Southern Alberta Land Co.'s dam they had a most unfortunate runaway and wound up in an old cellar near D. L. Brereton's home on the reserve. Fortunately Mr. Brereton happened to be near at hand and succeeded in stopping the team before much damage was done. However, all were pretty badly shaken up, while Mr. Ketchum had one of his ears somewhat injured and the vehicle was damaged to the extent of about five bones. Don't mention this to anyone, please.

Not Satisfied
Despite the fact that the British navy estimates for the current year show a proposed expenditure of $257,500,000—an increase of nearly $10,000,000 over last year—the greater navy advocates are not satisfied. The London Daily Mail says: "The programme of new construction, consisting of only four battleships, four light cruisers and twelve destroyers, with an undisclosed number of submarines, is disappointingly meagre. Judged by the admiralty's own standards it is quite sufficient. No provision, other than a slight acceleration of the battleship programme, is made to fill the gap left by the delay in voting of the Canadian dreadnoughts. And yet, as Mr. Churchill said last year, these three ships are absolutely required from 1915 onwards for the whole defence of the British empire."

No Rest With Asthma. Asthma usually attacks at night, the one time when rest is needed most. Hence the loss of strength, the nervous debility, the loss of flesh and other evils which must be expected unless relief is secured. Fortunately relief is possible. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has proved its merits through years of service. A trial will surely convince you.

Little Johnny had been naughty all day. At last to cap the climax he slapped his small sister.

When father came home from the office the mother told him of his son's deeds.

"The next time you tease your sister you go to bed without your dinner," the father said, sternly.

The kiddie sat in silence for a few moments. Then all of a sudden he turned to his father.

"The next time I want to hit sister I'll wait until after dinner," he remarked.

DOCTORS DID NOT HELP HER

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. Bradley's Health—Her Own Statement.

Winnipeg, Canada.—"Eleven years ago I went to the Victoria Hospital, Montreal, suffering with a growth. The doctors said it was a tumor and could not be removed as it was causing instant death. They found that my organs were affected, and said I could not live more than six months in the condition I was in. "After I came home I saw your advertisement in the paper, and commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it constantly for two years, and still take it at times, and both my husband and myself claim that it was the means of saving my life. I highly recommend it to suffering women."—Mrs. ORILLA BRADLEY, 284 Johnson Ave., Winnipeg, Manitoba, Can.

Why will women take chances or drag out sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

OSTRICH AS BIRD SAVERS

Women May Have Feathers and Still No Slaughter Be Caused

The ostrich industry is good and it is worthy of encouragement. No woman need fear that she is aiding in any way the destruction of birds by wearing ostrich plumes. There are many more of the birds in the world today than there were when their domestication first began, and probably no wild African or Asiatic ostriches are now shot or trapped for their plumes. The product seen in our stores all comes from strong, happy birds hatched and reared in captivity. Use of their feathers does not entail the sacrifice of life, nor does it cause the slightest suffering to the ostrich; taking plumes from an ostrich is no more painful to the bird than shearing is to a sheep, and does not cause it half the alarm a sheep often exhibits at shearing.

The ostrich feather rings so loudly that women will probably never cease to wear it, and it is the ostrich—the big, ungainly, yet graceful ostrich—which is to supply the demand for high grade feathers of the future. Surely it is not too much to ask women to turn to this source of supply, which furnishes the most desirable plumes in the world, and thus to spare from needless torture and death the winged tenants of field and forest.—The Craftsman.

The Hate Got Mixed

The other afternoon I was in a gentleman's outfitting shop when a customer came in to purchase a hat. He tried on several, and was evidently hard to please, the counter becoming covered with the rejected. At last the salesman picked up a brown felt bowler, brushed it round with his arm, and extended it admiringly.

"These are being very much worn this season, sir," he explained.

"Are they?" said the customer thoughtfully, surveying himself in the mirror with his hat on his head. "Do you think it suits me?"

"Suits you to perfection, sir. It fits all right."

"Yes, it fits very well. So you think I had better have it?"

"I don't think you could do better, sir."

"No, I don't think I could, so I won't have a new one."

The salesman had been praising up the old hat—Answers.

The Cure of the Soil

From time immemorial men have known the virtues of the soil in healing those whose mind or body has suffered from ills which are inevitable in crowded cities. In mythology the idea was finally crystallized in the old legend of Minerva who was rendered all but invulnerable by the reviving power of mother earth. Thrown to the ground in any contest, he arose each time stronger than before. Which means that a return, if only temporary, to the natural life from which civilization tends to wean man is like a return to the well with an empty pitcher. That this is realized now as rarely before is amply proved by the present anxiety of every hand to get the most possible of country life. Who does not know people who openly boast that they have thrown physics to the dogs since they began to work in some fashion on a little plot of ground, however small, some where in the country?

And if the recrudescence of this old idea which prompted Horace to flee the populous Rome to the simplicity of his Sabine farm seems especially strong today, when numbers are being used up physically and mentally by the stress of city life, is it not, inevitably, too, a more modern idea. Prevention, which has become the watchword in medicine and social welfare work, is also in the minds of many who, to keep themselves fit, have turned to country life. Puritanism, as preventive treatment, what is here meant are the humbler forms of country life activities, available particularly to those of modern means who will entrust to no gardener or horticultural or landscape artist the tasks which they themselves can do, with the assurance of gaining thereby health and peace of mind.

The preventive idea is the modern helpful view. Let the city dweller or worker break in mind, and so to the soil before he has to. Even a temporary return to nature gives comfort and relief to a broken man.—New York Post.

It is well known that in the bed of the St. Lawrence river, the outlet of the great lakes, there are in many places masses of rocks that make its navigation dangerous, except to reliable men whose knowledge of the safe channels is unquestioned. A passenger on one of its steamers was plying the captain with questions as to the safety of the journey, and at length asked:

"Captain do you know where all the rocks are in this river?"

In his patient, deliberate manner, he replied: "No, ma'am. I don't know where all the rocks are, but I know where the channel is."—Christian Herald.

IF A NATURALIST PAINTED.

How Thoreau Would Have Represented on Canvas "The Short Days of Winter"

If I were to paint the short days of winter I should paint two towering icebergs approaching each other like promontories, for morning and evening, with cavernous recesses, and a solitary traveler wrapping his cloak about him and bent forward against the driving storm, just entering the narrow pass. I would paint the light of a taper at midday, seen through a cottage window, half buried in snow and frost. In the foreground should appear the harvest and far in the background, through the pass, should be seen the towers in the fields and other evidences of spring. On the right and left should be shadowed off from the light of midday to midnight with its stars, the sun being low in the sky.—Henry David Thoreau.

IMPURE BLOOD IN THE SPRING

The Passing of Winter Leaves People Weak and Depressed

As winter passes away it leaves many people feeling weak, depressed and easily tired. The body lacks that vital force and energy which pure blood alone can give. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are an all-year-round blood builder and nerve tonic, but they are especially useful in the spring. Every dose helps to make new, rich, red blood. Returning strength commences with their use and the vigor and cheerfulness of good health quickly follows.

There is just one cure for lack of blood and that is more blood. Food is the material from which blood is made, but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills double the value of the food we eat. They give strength, tone up the stomach and weak digestion, clear the complexion of pimples, eruptions and boils, and drive out rheumatic poisons.

If you are pale and sallow, if you feel continually tired out, breathless after slight exertion, if you have headaches, or backaches, if your joints ache, if your appetite fails and food does not nourish nor sleep refresh you, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will make you well and strong. To build up the blood, is the special purpose of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and that is why they are the best spring medicine.

If you feel the need of a tonic at this season give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial and you will rejoice in new health, new strength and new energy. Do not let the trying weather of summer find you weak and ailing. Build yourself up now with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills—the pills that strengthen.

Ask for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and do not be persuaded to take something else. If your dealer does not keep these Pills they will be sent by mail, post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"William, go up to my room. Back of my wardrobe there are—" "Cigars, sir?" "Yes. How did you find them?" "Oh, very good indeed, sir!"

A well known actor-manager observed recently that an actor should be modest, and that most actors were. He went on to say that he once knew a young player who, at the beginning of his career, carried modesty almost too far. This young aspirant inserted in all the dramatic papers a want advertisement that read:

"Engagement wanted: Small part, such as dead body or shouts outside, preferred."—Tit-Bits.

A young man happened to be present at a party. One of the company offered him a glass of whiskey. He declined with thanks, saying that he was a teetotaler. Unfortunately for himself, he had a very red nose, not at all like that of one who abstained from intoxicating liquor.

Immediately on his refusal of the drink, an old Scotsman, who was a bit of a wag, stood up and said: "Weel, man, ye might tak' down your resin, and let folk ken that ye're teetotal."

Mr. Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the famous Arctic explorer, who is at present apparently having a rough time in the frozen North, tells many good stories of the way in which the Eskimo grasp the literal meaning of anything they hear.

Put Forth the Best

My experience in the varying judgments given about poetry has all converged upon one solitary principle and the experience of the artist in all ages is reported by history to be of precise the same direction. That principle is, that the artist shall put forth humbly and lovingly, and without bitterness against opposition, the very best and highest that is within him, utterly regardless of contemporary criticism.—Sidney Lanier.

HOW DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED MRS. LANCE

Pembroke Woman Suffered for Fifteen Years Before She Found Quick Relief and a Complete Cure.

Pembroke, Ont.—(Special)—Of peculiar interest to women is the story of the cure of Mrs. Morlie Lance, well known and highly respected here. Let Mrs. Lance tell that story in her own words.

"For about fifteen years I was a very sick woman," she says. "My sleep was broken and unrefreshing. I had a bitter taste in my mouth in the morning. I was often dizzy and flashes of light floated before my eyes. My limbs were heavy and I had a dragging across the loins."

"At last Rheumatism was added to my troubles and I also suffered from lumbago, dropsy and gravel. I felt that my kidneys were the cause of all my troubles and decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. From almost the first they did me good, and after taking twelve boxes I am again a well woman."

Women who suffer should learn that the cause of their troubles is bad kidneys. Having learned that, the rest is easy. Thousands of Canadians will tell you out of their own experience that Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure bad kidneys.

A bashful boy, accompanied by his father, took a load of hay to town for the new minister. Just as they reached the minister's gate the load slipped off, putting the load beneath it. The boy hastened to the door to ask for help. When the minister answered his knock he began to explain about the mishap; but the cordial preacher cut him short by insisting that he come in and share their dinner—the upset load of hay could be attended to afterward. Not knowing how to refuse, the boy accepted the invitation. After the meal he pushed back his chair and looked at the minister appealingly.

"I guess I'll have to go and see about father now," he stammered.

"Why, where is your father?" inquired the surprised minister.

"He's out there under the hay," replied the boy.—Magazine of Fun.

Now that doctors have the reputation of charging outrageously for advice, the following story illustrates a point:

"Well, well," said Dr. Bigbill, as he met a former patient on the street, "I'm glad to see you again, Mr. Brown. How are you this morning?"

"First, doctor," said Mr. Brown, cautiously, "does it cost anything to tell you?"

Musical instruction for the employees has been started by Little Laundries, Ltd., at their laundry at Wealdstone, Harrow, England, and the washerwomen have had their first lessons in singing.

Some Forestry Facts

The forests of Argentina are said to contain enormous reserves of quebracho, a tree of large size producing a very hard wood containing from 16 to 26 per cent. of tannin. In 1911 Argentina exported 68,431 tons of tannin extract, besides 35,793 railway ties made from this wood and 438,216 tons of the timber.

At a cost of only $50 the Dominion Forestry Branch recently erected a lookout tower fifty feet high, overlooking two hundred square miles of woodland. Similar towers are being built on all the Dominion forest reserves in the west in order that fires may be seen and extinguished before they have time to spread beyond control.

Douglas fir was the only important timber tree in Canada whose production of lumber in 1912 did not show a decrease from 1911. This tree, which is the chief timber species in British Columbia, and is third in importance in Canada, derived its name from David Douglas, who discovered it in 1827 and introduced it into the gardens of Europe. Its adaptability and rapid rate of growth led to its being largely planted as a forest tree in Germany, France, Denmark and England, and the Indians in British Columbia sell immense quantities to European dealers every year. A Danish plantation at the age of 29 years produced 87 cords of wood, equal to an annual production of three cords per acre, which is about three times the growth rate of white pine on average soil in Canada. The wood of Douglas fir is also considerably stronger than white pine, and is valued highly for construction purposes because of its size, strength and comparative lightness. The mechanical properties of this wood will be fully investigated at the Forest Products Laboratories recently established by the Dominion Forestry Branch at McGill University, Montreal.

A tree in its lifetime produces over a million seeds. If only one of these seeds grows up to take its place, that tree has fulfilled its function.

At present, in order to secure adequate forest fire-protection it is necessary to install lookout towers and telephone lines so that the fire-rangers may early locate forest fires and rapidly assemble a force to fight them. A professor of physics has recently stated that "there can be reasonable doubt as to the applicability of wireless telegraph to the forester's problem of communication." An electrical engineer in a recent book on "Telephony" has expressed this statement by predicting that "in the near future the wireless telephone will not only progress far ahead of the wireless telegraph, but take its place." When instruments are perfected suitable for forest use, existing systems of forest fire-protection will be, to a large extent, revolutionized.

A Vancouver lumberman has estimated that "one ton of refuse goes to the burners for every thousand feet of lumber cut." In his own saw mill he has eliminated this waste by breaking up the refuse into small pieces which are manufactured into fuel briquettes at a cost of only $3 a ton.

The word "lumber" is said to have had its origin in Boston because the merchants lumbered the wharfs with "wood goods." The term, it is claimed, is merely a modification of the word "Lombard" because the Lombards were the first pawnbrokers and because it is originally carried with it the notion of pawnshop.—Forestry Branch News Letter.

U.S. Navy to Abolish Wine

Secretary of the Navy Daniels has issued an order abolishing the wine lists on board all ships of the navy. It does not become effective until July 1st next. The action came as a surprise to naval officers and officials of the administration. It was said at the White House that Mr. Daniels acted without consulting the president. It followed the receipt of a report from Surgeon General Braisted of the navy, in which the latter condemned the wine mess aboard warships and recommended that an order be issued abolishing it.

"No, indeed," was the reply. "I want to sell him this ring."

Insuring Unemployed a Benefit

"The Danes have demonstrated two truths; first, that unemployment is the most frequent cause of pauperism, and second, that insurance is the most effective remedy for unemployment." So writes Professor Coman in the Survey, referring to the Danish plan of insurance against unemployment. Under careful supervision it has been found possible to guard against serious loss of earning by unemployment for an average membership fee in the insurance societies of $1.90 per year. By this scheme launched in 1908, some 42,500 members of unskilled laborers' unions have received relief, the largest number for any year being for 1911-12 when 11,841 draw upon the funds. In this way suffering through unemployment is practically eliminated and that in a way which does not tend to pauperize the laborer but on the contrary preserves his independence and self-respect.

Indian Dance vs. Whiteman's

An amusing discussion as to the respective merits of the dances of the Indians and white people took place at a sitting of the House of Commons in Ottawa one evening last week, in considering the bill to amend the Indian Act. One provision of the bill will prevent an Indian in the future, taking part in dances away from his own reserve. Objection was taken to the clause by W. E. Knowles, Moose Jaw, who said that the Indians should be allowed to visit one another if they desire to do so. "As for the Indian dances," he said, "they are ahead of the tango and a turkey trot you see in Ottawa."

Premier Borden, who was in charge of the bill, remarked facetiously that, "those in Ottawa who dance the tango and turkey trot, do not go outside their own reserve."

Continuing in a serious vein he said that the object of the clause was to prevent Indians being taken away from the reserves for weeks at a time to prepare for stampedes and exhibitions of various kinds. This he said was very unsettling to the red men.

In the discussion F. B. Carroll is said to have asked Frank Oliver the difference between one Indian and a white man, and he answered, "The Indian is naturally a gentleman."

Advocate Exporting Bacon

Some people are fearful just now that the prairie provinces will overdo the pork raising business. They are ahead a great hog surplus and a sad slump in pig prices. We believe there would be scarcely any other line of production that it would be safe to increase to double its proportions. If this country is to continue in prosperity, we must develop exports of food products, and these must not all be in the form of wheat either. What more exportable product can we raise than bacon? Western Canada could well afford to go strong for an export bacon business, and when we get into that field the more hogs there are for the trade the better.

Will Encourage Stock Breeding

Hon. Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture, has been reported as announcing at Ottawa that the department proposes to encourage farmers to organize breeders' associations to secure suitable sires, the department to pay a portion of the cost. The minister said that the policy of loaning breeding stock will be continued but that home-bred animals rather than imported stock will be supplied, as it is not desirable that the department should go into the business of importing thoroughbred stock. A resolution was introduced passed recently by the Horse Breeders' Association of Alberta respectfully requesting the minister of agriculture not to send any more eastern stock into the province because of the inferior quality.

Everyone is now talking and writing about the coming Gleichen Stampede, and the excellent work of the various committees has already secured the success of the big undertaking. The C. P. R. has entered into the spirit of the Stampede and have given special reductions in railway rates, and will run special passenger trains each morning from Calgary and return each evening.

Here is a good one on the latest arrival from England. One of our good farmers engaged him at the station and after engaging told him to come over to one of the stores. Coming into the store he asked one of the salesmen to get this man a pair of overalls. The new comer asked, "What do I want with a pair of overalls on the farm?" To which the clerk replied, "You will want them to put on to keep the soup from splashing all over you at dinner time." Next please.

The Gleichen baseball players were given a rather severe shock at Cluny the other day, but the boys are game and say it only inspires them to greater things.

Mrs. Crouch is now rapidly improving and has almost entirely recovered from the shock and burns she received in the Larkin Block fire.

On Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. P. Evans, Miss Muriel Gooderham was made the recipient of a linen shower in anticipation of her approaching marriage. About twenty of her friends gathered to share in the presentation.

He desires to thank the public for the generous patronage given him so far during the sale, which will be continued until next Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Till of Rosebud Creek were visitors to Gleichen Tuesday. Their many friends here were pleased to meet them as this was their first visit to town since last December. Mr. Till is quite enthusiastic over the prospects of the Rosebud district and town since railway communication has been established, and it is quite evident that his faith in the district, which he has shown by a residence of more than two decades, is now about to be demonstrated in a manner that will both surprise many former residents and prove a financial benefit to himself.
